BEAN CROP WILL BRING PROSPERITY HERE, SAYS EXPERT

Southern Californian In Ukiah, Tells of Opportunity

PRICES ON INCREASE

Declares Mendocino Is Ideal For Bumper Production

"Plant more beans in Mendocino county, even if it is necessary to plow up some of your hops to do it. Beans will bring more money into this county than any other crop."

This is the advice left behind by E. A. Slayton, business manager of the Farmers and Producers Association of Southern California, who sped through this city Wednesday en route to his home after a business trip to the northern part of the State and Oregon.

"Fogs have been responsible for a great delay in harvesting the bean crops in the southern part of the State," he continued, "and to make matters worse the bean men have been caught by the rains. The crop is only about forty per cent normal this year and the prices are beginning to shoot skyward.

"In my opinion there will be a very large increase in acreage planted to beans in California next season, and if I'm any judge your farmers are making a grave mistake if they do not step right into this industry now and get their share of the profits. There are many sections of this State where a big bean crop can be grown successfully and Mendocino county, to my mind, is one of them. Another thing, the prices are good and have been high for two seasons now.

Acreage Is Increased

"This season beans have been tried in many parts of California where they have never been grown before, and generally the experiment has been successful. The farmers of Southern California are awakened to the advantages of raising beans. Generally land that grow good hops will produce fine beans. Your hops are

HOPLAND PIONEERS HOSTS AT REUNION

MR. AND MRS. W. W. THATCHER FETED ON THEIR FIFTY-THIRD WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

HOPLAND, Nov. 18.—One of the most enjoyable events in the social history of this section of the county took place last Thursday when Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thatcher entertained a number of friends in celebrating their fifty-third wedding anniversary. To these hardy pioneers, whose memories recall the days of ox teams and hardships such as only our forefathers have known, were extended the heartiest congratulations and best wishes of the entire community.

Mr. Thatcher, now 74 years of age, is hale and hearty and one of Mendocino county's most progressive citizens. With his lovable wife, the aged couple lived over, in memory, the days of their courship and marriage, on last Thursday afternoon and were eager participants in the gaiety of the day.

William W. Thatcher and Miss Sarah E. Roach, a native of California, were married in Sacramento in 1852. Their marriage has been blessed with five children. Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher have been residents of the Sanel valley since 1869 when Mr. Thatcher erected the first brick building at this place and have since conducted a general merchandise store and the Thatcher Hotel here.

It will ever be a memorable occasion for those who were present on last Thursday to greet this pioneer couple. Those who assisted in receiving the guests at the beautifully decorated luncheon tables were Mrs. J. W. Harris, Mrs. J. Walker and Mrs. S. E. Brookes.

MINE HOST SANDELIN PEEVED; MINSTREAL JOKE IS NOW TRAGEDY

Frank Sandelin, genial host at the Palace Hotel, is on the warpath. His fighting blood is boiling and if it wasn't for the fact that bullets are flying too thick to make it inviting, he would go over to Europe and show 'em a few things about running a war. It is all because, after being advertised as an end-man in a minstrel show and buying a fifty-pound keg of burnt cork for his own private, personal use, the powers that be decided not to have the show. He even went so far as to polish up and rehearse some of his favorite jokes, in anticipation of bombarding the public, but now he is denied the privilege. Instead, he is firing them at his guests at the Palace. But just the same he's peeved, he's infuriated, irritated, incensed, exasperated. And if you mention minstrels to Sandelin—run!

HOP PRICES JUMP; 112 BALES BOUGHT

SANFORD SELLS TO HORST AT THIRTEEN, THREE-QUARTERS OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS.

The local hop market made a jump of one and three quarters cents yesterday when E. J. and Oscar Sanford sold 112 bales to the E. C. Horst Company for 11¾ cents. This, together with the fact that there are several buyers in town this week, would indicate that the hop market is on a more substantial basis now since there is somewhat of a demand for this year's crop.

This is the third sale closed here this year, aside from the hops bought on contract. Both the other sales were made at 10 cents.

Growers are hoping that the price will ascend and there is no doubt but that it would advance more than it has for years if there would be a cessation of hostilities in Europe.

Sales of hops at twelve and a half cents per pound were made in Santa Rosa on Thursday. Among the sales reported at that figure were 180 bales of Dr. J. W. Clark's. Chester Slusser of Sonoma county sold his hops for thirteen cents and Frank Wood disposed of a lot at twelve and a half cents.

The lecture will be free for all who wish to attend.

KINGSLEY CHAPTER GIVES DUTCH FEAST

A "Kafe Clatch," which proved by far more than a sip of coffee and a chat, was enjoyed by members of the Kingsley Chapter, O. E. S., at the lodge rooms last Monday evening after degrees had been conferred upon three candidates.

Many new and unique novelties were introduced into this evening of gaiety, the most novel of which were the decorations in the banquet room and the home-made dishes from which the rare Dutch delicacies were served. Green and red peppers served to enliven the decorating scheme and for center-pieces minature Dutch windmills were used. The young women who served the "fest" were dressed in costume and the entire affair was decidedly unique.

After the feast, Dutch songs closed a most enjoyable evening.

PARSON, MINUS FOOTWEAR TIES MARITAL KNOT

UKIAHITE GOES TO HOLLISTER FINDS SHOELESS MINISTER, BECOMES BENEDICT.

Who is George H. Ferrel, aged 46, of Ukiah, and why, when he led Miss Isabel Trapp, aged 41, of Pasadena, to the altar did he go so far away as Hollister, and why did he seek a shoeless minister to do the honors? Didn't he know there are innumerable parsons in Ukiah who would gladly doff their kicks for such an important occasion?

These are a few of the questions in this mysterious romance that are puzzling Ukiahites. But the story is best told by a Hollister scribe:

After securing a license, the couple set forth to locate a minister and finally found the Rev. L. E. Scott, who was doing some renovating work on the interior of his brother's new home on B street. The preacher's activities in decoration and cleaning caused him to be attired in his most ancient clothing and he had doffed his shoes. The would-be-weds were not looking for frills, however, so they waived the unministerial dress and joining hands, were linked together for better or for worse as tightly as if they had heaping measure of fuss, feathers and full dress.

Mrs. S. B. Gillespie, a passerby, lent her services as a witness.

Eight of the twelve jurors were for conviction. Attorney B. E. Pemberton of Pettis & Pemberton, conducted the prosecution for the District Attorney and Attorney Charles McConaughy appeared for the defendants.

Judge Whipple has set the new trial for November 26.

HERE FOR COIN, GOES TO POOR HOUSE! INSTEAD

STRANGER TRICKED BY AUTOIST, TELLS PATHETIC STORY—ASKS FOR HELP.

A pathetic story is told by Joseph Zittle, a stranger, who landed here this week penniless, hungry and friendless, after making his way from Napa for money that had been promised him.

According to Zittle, he was run down by a speeding automobilist in Napa county a few weeks ago. The motorist took the injured man to a near by hospital and offered to give him $15 damages. Zittle refused the amount, and the man drove away after giving the name of D. H. Thomas, Ukiah, and telling Zittle that if he would come here he would be well paid for the damages.

Zittle arrived here Monday. When he was unable to locate "D. H. Thomas," he told his story to Deputy Sheriff Ganter, who found that the automobile bearing the registration number of 3456, which Zittle declares was the number of the car which struck him, was owned by Maier William Fredk of Sacramento.

Zittle is being cared for at the county hospital, but the local officers have no jurisdiction in arresting the motorist, since the accident occurred outside the county.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF THEFT FREED WITH REPRIMAND

Mrs. Mary Brayton was arrested Friday and taken to Ukiah Sunday on a charge of burglary, says the Point Arena Record. It appears she entered Mrs. Wm. Harvey's residence, which is owned by Mrs. Brayton but rented to Mrs. Harvey, and made herself at home. Mrs. Harvey swore out a warrant at the county seat, and the Sheriff telephoned Constable Ball to arrest the woman and take her to Ukiah. No complaint was entered, and the Sheriff giving Mrs. Brayton a severe reprimand allowed her to go. J. W. Kingren acted as her attorney.

HARVEY IS GIVEN 40-YEAR SENTENCE

MAN WHO SHOT MARSHAL DIXON IS TAKEN TO SAN QUENTIN FOR LONG TERM.

William Harvey, slayer of Marshal Dixon at Point Arena, was taken to San Quentin Tuesday morning by Deputy Sheriff George A. Finney, and has now served three days of the forty-year sentence imposed by Superior Judge White. Harvey was convicted of murder in the second degree last Friday after an argument by the jury of twenty-two hours, and was sentenced by Judge White on Monday.

Harvey was unmoved when the forty-year sentence was pronounced, but flinched more than once during the severe reprimand administered by the court. Attorney Charles Kasch, who defended Harvey, made a motion for a new trial, which was denied. He then asked the court for clemency.

Under this sentence, allowing for all credits on good behavior, Harvey's time will approximate twenty-four years. He will, however, be entitled to consideration for parole by the prison directors after serving half of this time and may be released on parole after serving approximately thirteen years of the forty-year sentence. He is now 29 years old.

To Attorney Kasch Harvey gave all the credit for securing so lenient a verdict from the jury, as Judge White stated in passing sentence that "the jury would have been justified under the evidence in finding you guilty of murder in the first degree, and in my judgment it never could have been reversed."

The court battle both for and against Harvey was well fought on a clean, legitimate legal basis. Neither District Attorney Hale McCowen, Jr., nor Attorney Kasch left a stone unturned in securing evidence for their respective sides and the lengthy deliberation of the jury is convincing proof that each side left its impression with the twelve men who heard the evidence.

HON. MR. MULE LIFTS HON. FOOT AND SLAPS HON. JAP ON HON. JAW

George Yatowka, a Japanese working on a hop ranch south of town, might have fallen into the German trenches and escaped with less bloodshed, fewer bruises and a better disposition than he is now nursing. But Yatowaka has not been serving the Mikadoo on the firing line, although his countenance is not unlike an European war map. It all happened Monday when the Honorable Mr. Japanese tried to halter the wrong end of Hon. Mr. Mule. Jack was not accustomed to being led by having his tail-feathers pulled, and when Yatewaka attempted to introduce the new stunt, something happened. There was a silent canonading from both barrels at the same time, and George looped more loops in the next few seconds than Art Smith would dare to attempt. But he has been stitched together and will recover.

1300 POUNDS OF TURKEYS FOR ASYLUM

INMATES AT TALMAGE INSTITUTION TO HAVE BIG FEAST ON THANKSGIVING.

Next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, the event that every patient in the Mendocino State Hospital eagerly looks forward to—is to be celebrated this year with the usual turkey feast, and preparations for an extensive menu are already under way.

Steward N. S. Burge reports that 1300 pounds of turkeys will be placed on the tables for inmates of the institution, together with cranberries and other tasty delicacies that go to make up a real Thanksgiving dinner. Nothing will be left undone to make the sumptuous feast a memorable one, and revelry will reign on next Thursday.

Never in the history of the Talmage hospital have the hundreds of unfortunates been overlooked on this day and no matter what station of life they may have occupied before being committed to the institution, all are given the choicest of edibles and are entertained with the greatest care and attention on the day of Thanksgiving. Steward Burge is in personal charge of this year's big feast and promises that it will be a repast long cherished in the memories of the patients.

The State Board of Control has estimated that it will require 20,000, or ten tons of turkeys, for the inmates of the several State institutions.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Amos Mahurin, who has been working at the Geyser Peak winery, Geyserville, fell from the wagon he was driving last week and landed across the brake which injured him severely. He has been at the hotel, where he is being cared for, and is doing very well under the care of Dr. Sohler.

PIONEER ROAD MAN PRAISES HIGHWAY

The State Highway will be one of the greatest features in putting Mendocino county in a conspicious place on the map of California, is the opinion of Mayor B. F. Branscomb of Branscomb, pioneer road builder and staunch Republican, who was a prominent visitor in this city the first of the week.

Mayor Branscomb is well pleased with the work done in this county and highly compliments the contractors. He left here Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Branscomb and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller for the latter's home at Healdsburg. Mr. Miller is one of the well-known Sonoma hop men.

The train had no attraction for the party this trip, Mr. Branscomb being determined to continue over the highway and further inspect the new road.

COVELO MAN LOSES IN COMBAT WITH U. S. FOR LAND

Federal Court Ruling Is Against Stockman In Contest

ED. GIBSON IS LOSER

Valuable Stock Range Is At Stake In Long Fought Action

After a government land contest which has been waged in court for some time and which originally dates back to the time of the influx of settlers on the Round Valley relinquished reservation property, Ed. Gibson, the Covelo stockman, this week lost his right to 160 acres of the most valuable property in the tract. The decision against Gibson was rendered by Federal Judge Van Fleet in San Francisco.

The legal combat was one of the most hotly contested in Mendocino's extensive history of land suits and, according to Gibson, who was here yesterday en route home after attending the final hearing in the metropolis, the decision was rendered before he had opportunity to introduce all of the evidence he desired.

The claim, which was one of the first of this choice stock range to be filed on, was taken up by Al Bingham through an agent named Murphy, who was for some time engaged in locating settlers in the Round Valley foothills, Gibson declares. After Bingham had finally filed upon the property, he sold the claim to Gibson, whose range adjoined. Later inspectors appeared upon the scene and declared that Bingham's improvements were not sufficient and that he had not lived upon the property long enough to secure a clear title.

The government then sought to revoke the title and declare the property vacated, but since Gibson had bough it, he contested the action and the hearing in San Francisco this week resulted.

Aside from the value of the property, which Gibson had already paid to Bingham, the contest will cost him costs of suit, amounting approximately $2000.

DAMAGE SUIT FOLLOWS FREEING OF WILLITS RANCHER BY SUPERIOR COURT.

Moore of Willits, who shot and wounded Leo Conrad on July 6, Conrad yesterday filed suit for $5180 damages against Moore in the superior court, through his attorneys, Preston & Preston and M. H. Iverson. The jury which tried Moore disagreed and the case was dropped from the court calendar this week by District Attorney Hale McCowen, Jr.

In the new complaint, Moore is asked to pay $75 for Conrad's loss of time because of the bullet wound in his neck, $40 for physician's services, $10 for nurse, $45 hospital fees, $10 for medicine, making a total of $180, and $5000 for punitive damages.

COUNTY IDEAL FOR BEANS, SAYS EXPERT

among the best in the State and if these farmers would take a good tip they would at least experiment with a small bean acreage next year."

In response to inquiries following this interview, the San Francisco correspondent of The Press has sent the following information, secured from a pioneer commission merchant of the metropolis:

The California bean crop for 1915 promises to be the most valuable ever produced in the Golden State, if prices for the food staple continue to advance at the rate they are now showing. California and Michigan produce 75 per cent of the domestic beans consumed in the United States every year, and on account of a small crop in the latter State, Middle Western sections of the country are looking to California for their supplies of the commodity.

Supply Is Short

Dealers and brokers in beans are having difficulty in filling all the orders they are receiving from outside sources, and it is their bidding against each other for the available supply of beans on hand as well as future orders that has caused the unusually high prices now prevalent.

Every variety of bean known to horticulture is grown in this state, including pinks, limas, small whites, Lady Washingtons, Garvanzas, Manchurian reds and black eyes.

The total amount of acreage devoted to the cultivation of beans in California this year was fully 25 per cent greater than in 1914, and at the present rate that new fields are being used for bean growing it will not be many years before this state will dominate the production of beans in the United States.

Prices On Increase.

Last year pink beans sold to the retail trade at $4 a sack; today they are commanding a price of $1 more. Navy beans, which were more or less of a drug on the market in 1914 at $5.25 a sack, are now bringing $6 in small lots. Lady Washingtons and limas have increased in value, respectively, from $1.50 to 50c a hundredweight over what they sold for 12 months ago.

For the eight months ending August 31 the United States exported 105,312 bushels of beans to England and France, compared to 24,468 bushels in 1914. Shipments for the month of August alone were five times what they were in the same month last year.

DRASTIC BUILDING LAWS FOLLOW CLOVERDALE FIRE

Following the recent disastrous fire at Cloverdale, the trustees of that place have framed drastic building ordinances which were adopted at the meeting this week. According to the new ordinances buildings must be enclosed on all sides with independent or party walls. All exterior and party walls shall be of brick, stone, reinforced concrete, steel or other substantial material. There shall be no more wood used on the outside of buildings than shall be required for window frames, doors and sashes.

MRS. INEZ STAYTON IS GRANTED DIVORCE

After the filing of complaints and cross-complaints in one of the most sensational divorce cases to come before the superior court in several months, Mrs. Inez J. Stayton was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from J. D. Stayton of Fort Bragg by Judge White yesterday. Mrs. Stayton was represented by Attorneys Preston & Preston and Clarence Tindall and H. E. Witherspoon conducted Stayton's side of the case.

Under the terms of decree, Mary Caroline Stayton, the three-year old daughter of the couple, will remain in the custody of Mrs. Stayton for ten months during the year and Stayton is to pay $10 a month for her support. The remaining two months she will be in the custody of Mrs. William Standley of Westport, to whom Stayton will pay $10 a month.

Mrs. Stayton filed suit for divorce on March 27, which was contested in a cross complaint filed a few days later. Sensational charges were hurled in both instances, but after a hearing in court this week Stayton agreed to withdraw his cross-complaint.

The Staytons were married at Fort Bragg on June 12, 1912.

NOYO ENGINEER IS DROWNED IN STORM

About 200 ties were washed from the deck of the steamer Noyo in the Cleone harbor at three o'clock this morning by a rough sea which came up suddenly, says the Fort Bragg Advocate of yesterday. At twelve o'clock the ocean was calm and so sudden was the change that the captain was forced to cut his lines and put to sea.

Chief Engineer Clark was washed overboard and lost shortly after they had put out. He was up on the bow repairing the wench when a big sea caught him.

No damage was done to the boat and most of the ties washed ashore on the Cleone beach.

CALIFORNIA

By Miss A. M. Whipple.

Where e'er I'll roam, where e'er I'll be,
My tho'ts will ever turn to thee—
Oh, lovely California!
For thous hidest many a precious gem,
Also budding lily on many a stem—
Oh, fairest California.

Here can the student dig for wealth,
Here can the weakling gain new health
In richest California—
Here can society shine their best,
Here can all poor folk find sweet rest,
In blessed California!

Then after many years have sped,
While eyes grow dim and hearts have bled,
Afar from California,
Oh, be my last prayer to my God,
That in peace they lay me neath the sod,
In dear old California!

(Note—This poem was written some time ago and is published at the request of Miss Whipple.)

TIRE MAKERS GIVE TIP TO MOTOR-WISE

Winter is coming! What are you going to do with your car?

Every motorist should know that unless he pays particular attention to the way he stores his car or the manner in which he uses it during the winter months, he will incur a large repair expense bill.

The manufacturers of Diamond tires have made a few recommendations to motorists, believing that if they know how to properly take care of the car and its equipment they will get better service and satisfaction from the Diamond products which they are using.

Those motorists who do not drive their cars during the winter months, should be very careful to store the car properly. The wheels should be jacked up and blocks set under the axles to prevent the car from slipping. When jacked up the tires should be removed, washed carefully and if the tread or side walls are cut they should be repaired before storing. The winter months offer an excellent opportunity to the motorist to get his car in good shape for the coming season.

If the tires are in first-class condition they should be wrapped in dark paper which will prevent the light from getting to them and then stored where there is no danger of freezing. Heat, light and cold are all enemies of rubber and the motorist who does not take this precaution with his tire equipment will find that his tires have deteriorated during the winter months.

The car should be gone over carefully and cleaned, grease taken out of the gears, they should be repacked and special care taken to drain the radiator. If this is not done there will be danger of freezing. Leave the pet cocks under the radiator and engine open.

Another thing which you may not remember to do is to put up the top. If it remains down during the entire winter it will set in creases and if it is stretched tight it will keep in good shape.

They did me good from the first. The pain in my back ceased, my kidneys became normal and my health greatly improved."
